Ignoring the Law

The report of the police chief to the City Council for November made interesting reading in one respect at least. It was interesting in its omissions rather than what it contained. There was no mention of a single parking bylaw infraction in the report.

This can lead to but three conclusions:

1. The bylaw restricting parking to one hour on Bernard has been repealed.
2. The car and truck drivers in the Kelowna area and the visitors also are observing the bylaw one hundred per cent.
3. The bylaw is not being enforced.

Although a Courier reporter has been present at all City Council meetings, The Courier has no knowledge that the bylaw has been repealed; moreover the signs are still up. It can, therefore, assume the bylaw is still on the books. The second possibility is so remote that it can provoke only a good belly-laugh.

The third possibility—that the bylaw is not being enforced—remains, therefore, as the only possible explanation of the lack of prosecutions for over-parking on Bernard.

The police chief's November report is but an open invitation for all car drivers and truck drivers to join those other dozens who have been flagrantly flouting the bylaw for many months. Park where you like, boys and gals, no attempt is being made to enforce the bylaw!

If this bylaw is not to be enforced, surely the City Council should wipe it off the records? About all it has accomplished to date is to disgrace the street with unsightly signs carrying misinformation that "no parking longer than one hour is allowed between this and that time" when you can park all day if you so desire and no one will say you nay.

Laws that are ignored are poor laws, but when the breaking of laws is condoned by those in authority, the whole structure of law observance is given a body blow.

B.C. Should Watch Washington

The government—and the people—of British Columbia should be watching what is happening in the State of Washington today. The government of that state has found that its expenditures so far exceed its income that it must reduce its social services. Commencing in January reductions will be put into effect which will curtail social service expenditures by one million dollars a month. This is for a three-month trial period and if the saving is not sufficient, further cuts will be made.

The cuts in payments to individuals run from five to forty per cent. Old-age pensions are cut five per cent; children's assistance is cut twenty-five per cent; unemployable persons on "unemployment insurance" are cut twenty-five per cent, while employable persons are cut forty per cent. Even after the cuts the social payments in Washington will be generally higher than those paid in most other states.

The situation in Washington is the direct result of a too ambitious social security program. The health care program alone is running in the red at over $6,000,000 in two years. Social security measures were simply taking a larger percentage of the state revenue than the state could afford. Hence the drastic action.

British Columbia might well look to Washington and read a lesson there for itself. This province has been inclined to run "hog wild" on social security proposals and these things are very fine as long as there is the money to pay for them. But B.C. may find, as has Washington, that there is a limit beyond which the state cannot go. It would be much better to stop before that limit is reached than to be put in the position of having to follow Washington's policy of drastic curtailments.

Dual Radio

The National Council of Women, in its brief to the Royal Commission on Arts and Sciences, objected to Canada's so-called "dual" radio system for the very reason that it does not offer a dual system. The brief pointed out that with CBC carrying commercial programs on both a national and a local basis, there is no opportunity for a listener, weary of commercial announcements, to dial them out entirely unless he shuts his radio off.

To correct this system, the NCW recommended that all commercial broadcasting be left in the hands of private stations on a network of their own. The CBC, as a result of its construction of a series of high-powered stations across the country, is now in a position to reach most of the populated areas of Canada, and should concentrate on its true function of providing national programs of public interest on a non-commercial basis.

There is much to be said for the proposal. Not only would it accomplish the purpose which the National Council of Women have in mind, but it would eliminate the constant bickering between the CBC and the private stations.

Should such a step be taken it would not be without precedent. Australians are provided with just such a service, and are able to choose between the non-commercial offerings of the Australian Broadcasting Corporation and the largely commercial schedules of private stations. From all reports they are pleased with the arrangement.

MOTORIST HITS TRAIN ENGINE; ESCAPES INJURY

Malcolm F. Chapin, local restaurateur, had a narrow escape when the car he was driving was in collision with a slow-moving Canadian National locomotive at the Richter Street Crossing at 8:15 p.m. last Thursday.

Escaping with facial cuts, Chapin told police his car, with estimated damage of $250 to the right side, was pushed 70 feet along the right-of-way before the engine halted.

He said a caboose just to the side of the crossing prevented him from seeing the engine until his car was in the middle of the crossing and the locomotive was only a few feet to his right.

Chapin, alone in the car, told police it was raining hard at the time of the accident.

WANT SIDEWALK

The proprietor of the Bay Coffee Shop, L. G. Almas appeared before City Council Monday night with a petition calling for the construction of a sidewalk in front of his store. Council will investigate the matter, but in the meantime, the owner of the property, E. J. Spelling was given permission to build the sidewalk to specifications provided by the city engineer.

SNOW OR NO SNOW. Santa Claus will officially arrive in Kelowna Saturday morning, and judging from the above picture, he's in a happy mood for taking Christmas orders.

Sharp at 9 a.m., a mammoth street parade, arranged by the Kelowna Kinsmen Club, will move off from the entrance of The City Park. Children will attend two shows at the Paramount theatre and in the afternoon, the Memorial Arena will be open for two hours of free skating.

St. Nick will not forget children confined in the Kelowna General Hospital. While the show is in progress, he will visit the institution and present every child with a gift. The Santa Claus parade is staged annually by the Kinsmen Club.

Mammoth Street Parade Will Herald Visit Of Santa Claus On Saturday

Flash! Bullet!

Stop the press!

Santa Claus is coming to town!

Latest word received this morning by the Kelowna Kinsmen Club states St. Nicholas will arrive in Kelowna Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and to celebrate the occasion, the service club is arranging a mammoth street parade.

But unless some of those white crystals fall within the next 48 hours, Santa Claus may be forced to install a pair of roller skates on his sleigh, or he may abandon it entirely in favor of a truck which the Kinsmen have placed at his disposal.

However, snow or no snow, the Kinsmen are going ahead with plans for welcoming the jolly old man, with the white beard, Clowns with big red noses and dressed in colorful costumes will run along side the many decorated floats that will accompany St. Nick on the main street.

Visit Hospital

Lining up at the corner of Abbott street and Bernard, the parade will start sharp at 9 a.m., continuing up Bernard to St. Paul street where it will turn around, proceed down the main street again, and stop in front of the Paramount theatre. At this point, Santa will dismount and welcome all children to two special shows, one starting at 9:30 a.m. for children up to seven years of age, and the other commencing at 10:30 for children between the ages of eight and twelve years. Bags of popcorn will be presented to each child as he leaves the theatre.

And Santa won't forget the kiddies confined to hospital. Leaving the children to enjoy themselves at the theatre, he will visit the various wards in the hospital and present each child with a gift.

But for the more fortunate kiddies, the entertainment will not stop with a free show. Arrangements have been made for children, including teen-agers, to have two hours of free skating in the Memorial Arena from 2 to 4 p.m.

St. Nick will also make his initial appearance at the parade, to be constructed in front of the post office.

On Monday and Tuesday of next week he will be stationed at his ice palace from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and again from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m.

During Saturday's street parade, motorists are asked to co-operate by keeping Bernard avenue free of vehicles between 8 a.m. and 10 a.m.

CITY POLICE COSTS JUMP $1,946.81

New Contract will be Considered by Next Year's City Council

It will cost taxpayers $20,241.32 to police the city during 1950, if the new contract, submitted by B.C. Provincial Police, is approved by next year's council.

Police contract figures were revealed last Monday night, when J. S. Slinas, commissioner of the B.C. Provincial Police, stated the increase will amount to $1,946.81 compared with the 1949 figure.

Reason for the boost is due to the additional cost of living bonus granted members of the force last October and other higher expenditures. It now costs the City of Kelowna $2,663.69 per man for the seven policemen stationed here, while car mileage, based on 18,551 miles during the coming year, has been boosted from 7 to 8.1 cents per mile.

Finance chairman J. J. Ladd made no comment on the increased costs, but thought it should be considered by next year's council.

THREE YOUTHS APPREHENDED IN BREAK INS

Three juveniles were apprehended in the East Kelowna district last night in connection with two break-ins and thefts during the past few days.

Retained in custody was the oldest of the trio, a 17½-year-old youth, while the other two—one aged 15 and the other 16—were released in care of their parents. All are expected to appear in juvenile court this week.

Investigation by police into the theft last Friday night from Kelowna Orchard garage, East Kelowna, and Tuesday night from Goodison Brothers service station, Lakeshore and K.L.O. road junction, led to the apprehension of the youths.

A cash register, valued at $345 and a small amount of the $37 in currency, taken from the East Kelowna garage, were recovered, police reported.

Two fountain pens, the only loot from the Goodison service station also were recovered.

LOCAL POUNDMAN CRACKS DOWN ON STRAY DOGS

The city poundkeeper has "cracked down" on the number of stray animals roaming the streets. During the month of November, ten dogs were shot after the poundkeeper went through the usual channels of advertising the fact the dogs were in custody.

Submitting his monthly report to City Council Monday night, it was revealed ten stray dogs were shot; one was killed by a car; six were redeemed, one was sold, while another animal is still on hand. Two stray horses were later released.

New Traffic Bylaw Gets Three Readings After Horn Voices Opposition

KELOWNA'S new traffic bylaw was given three readings at Monday night's council meeting after Alderman Jack Horn strenuously objected to the wording of certain sections of the amended bill. The bylaw which contains many radical changes, will now be submitted to the city solicitor for perusal before being given final reading by council. When the vote was taken, Alderman Horn went on record as being opposed "to all three readings and the bylaw itself."

Alderman Dick Parkinson took exception to Alderman Horn's remark that the bylaw "has too much of the police draft in it, and we do not want to set a bunch of traps for unsuspecting motorists to be fined $2.50."

Traffic Lights

Mr. Parkinson said he had sat in on many committee meetings and that modern traffic regulations have been incorporated in the bylaw. However, he agreed that it should be referred to the city solicitor before final reading is given the bill.

"I wouldn't say the whole bylaw is full of traps, but there are certain things in it that need investigating," replied Alderman Parkinson. He said he thought the bill would need amending again next year due to changing traffic conditions.

The voluminous bylaw contains a total of 23 pages. Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games was in favor of council giving three readings to the bill so that it could be passed by this year's council after the city solicitor had perused the document. In addition to incorporating regulations governing the new traffic

YALE GRITS HOLD PARLEY IN JANUARY

Ways and means of building up the Liberal organization in Yale riding were discussed at the executive meeting of the Yale Liberal Association. A general meeting will be held shortly after the new year and a member of parliament will address the gathering.

Miss Hilda Cryderman, the representative on the B.C. advisory council was instructed to deal with a number of matters at the meeting to be held in Vancouver tomorrow night at the junior high auditorium. The story of "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves."

A telegram of condolence was sent to Arthur Laing, M.P., over the recent death of his mother.

Local Talent Will Take Stellar Roles in Boy Scout Production

Three well known local singers, bass-baritone John Sugars, mezzo-soprano Shirley Elden and baritone Foster Mills, will take the stellar roles in the Boy Scouts' production "Arabian Nights" tomorrow night at the junior high auditorium at 8 p.m. They will render excerpts from the score "Chu Chin Chow."

The musical comedy, "Arabian Nights" is a travesty based on the story of "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves."

The show, featuring a cast of forty, is produced by Peter Adland, assisted by John Crittenden and Mrs. Christie DeHart. The orchestra conducted by Carl Dunaway, will include Babe Newman, J. H. Hughes, Miss Betts Nighswander and Mrs. Kay Dunaway. Three little Kelowna dancers will add a colorful touch to the show, Harriet Jensen, Antoinette and Brenda Carr-Hilton.

Mrs. Helen Jensen will act as accompanist for the dancers. Costumes were made by mothers of the Boy Scouts and co-ordinated by

JOHN SUGARS

Mrs. J. O. Crittenden. This production is the one annual effort of the Boy Scouts to raise funds.

CITY TO PROBE COMPLAINT OIL LAMPS ARE USED

Complaint that oil lamps are being used in some of Pearson's cabins on Cawston avenue, was made by H. Waldron to City Council Monday night.

Mr. Waldron said that while he did not want to see the cabins closed down, as they serve a useful purpose for transients with meagre means, he thought the owner should be made to install electric lights, from the safety point of view.

B.C. EMPLOYEES ELECT TALBOT NEW PRESIDENT

William Talbot was elected president of the local B.C. Provincial Government Employees Association at the annual meeting held in the Women's Institute Hall Monday night. Other officers are William Short, vice-president; Miss Margaret Clow, secretary; and Miss Mona Pugh, treasurer. Directors include Miss I. Wallace, Miss Peggy Parfitt, John A. Smith, Ray Woods, Peter Gravel and Jim Hume.

Retiring president A. Knoohiuzen gave a resume of the past year's activities.

Will Co-operate But Wait For Instructions

BAN on crime comics and obscene pocket books has thrown local magazine store proprietors into a state of confusion. With the "Fulton Bill" amendments to the Criminal Code scheduled to become law Monday morning, Kelowna book stores are waiting for clarification, although majority admitted they are not taking chances, and will remove the obscene literature from book shelves.

Justice Minister Garson in Ottawa said that news dealers having crime comics and other banned publications in their possession after this week-end will be liable to prosecution under the new legislation.

But magazine merchants are puzzled over where to draw the line. Wholesale dealers and news agencies are located in Vernon, and late this afternoon no instructions have been received locally.

Police Chief R. B. McKay stated he had received no instructions, but that they would probably come from the attorney general's department.

Mrs. H. C. Manning, president of the local branch of the Parent-Teacher Association was gratified over the steps taken by the federal government in banning the lurid literature. Mrs. Manning feels that the local organization had a great deal to do in bringing the matter to a head, following the sad death of a Bankhead youngster who was found hanging from a rope last spring. The lad had an obsession for crime comic books, it was revealed at the inquest.

The local P.T.A. president said the B.C. organization had played a leading part in banning obscene literature, and feels it is the culmination of their efforts all across Canada.

But while local magazine stores (Kamloops) leaves no doubt about what crime comics are. It defines them as:

"Any magazine, periodical or book which exclusively or substantially comprises matter depicting pictorially the commission of crimes real or fictitious. Conviction on a charge under the amendments can bring up to two years sentence."

Not Talking Chances

"Where do we draw the line," one retailer asked. "I have a copy of 'Sex, Marriage and Birth Control.' Is this considered in the category of obscene literature?" The merchant said the book has been approved by the ministerial association.

One small coffee shop which carries a considerable number of crime comics, said he is throwing them all out, and will deal only in nationally-known magazines and newspapers.

Another retailer who probably has the largest magazine turn-over, stated he is not taking any chances. "I'm willing to co-operate. These types of magazines are only a nuisance anyway," he declared. The same proprietor also deals in obscene pocket books, and these too will be thrown out as soon as news agencies or some other authority states what books are permissible.

One who, however, expressed the opinion the ban will lead to a "black market" on crime comics among children. "They're bound to get them from some place," one retailer stated.

The "Fulton Bill," piloted through parliament by David Fulton, M.P.

BLANKET POLICY FOR INSURANCE BEING PROBED

After three years of careful study a committee which has investigated plans of instituting a blanket insurance policy scheme which would save the city a considerable amount of money, submitted a report to City Council Monday night.

While details of the proposed plan were discussed in committee, it was stated all city buildings and equipment were appraised earlier in the year, and the report contains several important recommendations.

Chairman of the committee was Alderman Jack Horn, while other members were Robert Whillis, Maurice Meikle and G. C. Bottger.

Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games paid tribute to the committee which has sacrificed a considerable amount of time in investigating the scheme.

"Calling All Cars..."

"Kelowna to Car 19... Intercept old-model car heading for Kelowna from Rutland and believed to contain drunken Indians."

Cpl. John Murdoch, in Car 19, equipped less than a week ago with frequency modulation radio receiver and sender, took the call at 5:30 p.m. yesterday at the south end of the city and hurried to the Vernon road.

Spotting the car in question already inside the city limits, Cpl. Murdoch forced it down Laurier Avenue and stopped it.

"Car 19 to Kelowna... Car in question stopped... Occupants unfit to drive. Send someone to scene to bring car in."

Today an Indian woman will be charged with drunken driving. She and an elderly Indian man and a white man will be charged with intoxication. A supplying charge also is pending.

In the 20-year-old car, police found a half-filled jug of wine and a partially consumed bottle of Scotch whisky.

Talked on the approach of the car came by phone. "This is a fairly good example of the efficiency with which we can now operate with the new radio equipment," admitted Sgt. R. B. McKay, NCO in charge of Kelowna B.C. Provincial Police.

"If we hadn't been able to stop them where we did, there's no telling what might have happened in the denser traffic in the city."

Considerable Interest Being Taken in Valley Elections on Saturday

At press time, out of a total of 2,702 registered voters, only 309 had cast ballots on the two bylaws being presented to Kelowna ratepayers. Polls at the Scout Hall close at 8 o'clock tonight.

WHILE in Kelowna only the ratepayers go to the polls today to vote on two bylaws, in almost all other Okanagan "entres the municipal voters have an additional interest in the election of mayors, reeves, aldermen or school trustees. Greatest interest, however, is centred upon the fights in Penticton and Peachland, where the voting does not take place until Saturday and torrid campaigns are now in progress.

In Penticton there are no less than four running for the mayoralty: W. B. Carter, J. W. Johnson, Oscar Matson and W. A. Rathboun. Mr. Johnson has been an alderman for many years and now seeks to step up. A ratepayers association proposed a slate of potential candidates for recommendation by its membership. The slate was headed by the name of W. A. Rathboun as mayoralty candidate. However the meeting endorsed Mr. Matson instead and Mr. Rathboun has entered the field as well.

Eight Candidates

No less than eight candidates are seeking the three vacant two-year terms on the Penticton council and four are seeking the one-year seat. Running for the two-year term are:

Kelowna people have watched with interest developments around Coulee Dam these past sixteen years—it's that long since the first work was started—but they will be due for something of a shock in 1951 if they do not keep pace with the doings in Grand Coulee itself the next couple of years.

The Grand Coulee itself is to be the retaining reservoir for the irrigation system. It will hold ninety feet of water. Already the dam at Coulee City at the south end of the Grand Coulee is completed, excepting for the approaches. Last week, as far as I could see, no work had been started on the northern retaining dam.

But there are over $2,000,000 in road contracts in progress immediately west of Grand Coulee Dam.
The new road is being built along the top of the pile of fallen rock at the base of the eastern wall and will replace the 30 miles of highway which now runs up the floor of Grand Coulee. The new road when completed will cost $1,000,000.
It will be a four-lane highway and will have the artificial lake on one side and the sheer basalt cliff on the other, although one section will run along the rimrock.

The highway when completed will provide tourists with unlimited recreational facilities along the reservoir as well as close-ups of the various points of interest of the north retaining dam and the feeder canal of the irrigation project.

One casualty of the highway relocation job is the eventual removal of the Indian petroglyphs a few miles west of Coulee Dam. These paintings on the granite walls of the coulee have been the subject of much discussion among geologists and historians.

Already many homes of pioneer ranchers and farmers have been removed from the coulee floor. The town of Osborne, a thriving shucktown community in the early days of the Coulee Dam construction, will be only a memory in a short time. The few remaining residents must move in the near future. Also to go is the 10,000 tree apple and pear orchard near the southern end of the coulee. This orchard when I first saw it a decade ago was a pretty pretty thing and now it looks pretty pretty but at one time it produced more fruit than any other Washington orchard.

These things and the railway line running up the coulee and the highway there stand in the path of progress so they must go. The Americans certainly do things on the grand scale. And the whole project is in itself a monument to one man principally. It was Rufus Woods, publisher of the Wenatchee World who first saw the possibilities of the whole Columbia Basin project and talked and wrote and fought for years for it. And now he sees the dam itself and in 1951 he'll see the first irrigation waters flow to the thirsty acres near Moses Lake.
r.p.m.

Last week I had to go to Moscow, Idaho, across the state line from Pullman, Washington. As a result, there is a bit of a mystery which is plaguing me. Around that Moscow-Pullman-Poulouse section of the country there are thousands of acres of a beautiful green. It's a pea country and the peas are up four, five, six inches. Obviously they had been sown this fall and obviously they will be winter killed. What puzzles me is how they will come up again in the spring.
I would think the structure of the pea would not permit a second sprouting. Or am I wrong? Some grains, of course, do it, but it seems to me a pea is something else again.

SPINS 'N LOOPS AT ELLISON AIRFIELD

Officials at the Ellison airfield have been fairly busy in the past few weeks completing a number of improvements to the air strip. The taxi area has been levelled and re-seeded and the field has been partially rolled, with grass cut on the runway.

A new hangar north of the administration building is now under construction. A number of visitors have been flocking out to the field in the past week, with Sunday proving the most popular day. Anyone interested is welcome to inspect the field at any time.

Newly purchased Cessna 140-A has been kept quite busy and has been flown by the following licen-ced private pilots: G. Newton, Nick Benzer, Justin McCarthy, Sid Johns, George McDonnell and Mac Chapin.
Two unlicensed student pilots, air cadets, John Wanderer and Ted Watkins, have both used this craft for their cross country flights, while the following student pilots have also had the opportunity to try the machine: John Fenwick, John Giesbrecht, Tiny Walrod and Andy Stefank.

Gordon Bennett and Les Wilson both made recent business trips to Penticton in the new Cessna, steering accurate courses.

INSIST ON SAFETY

Pasteurization of milk is simple protection from a variety of milk-borne infections including typhoid, tuberculosis, undulant fever, typhoid and para-typhoid fevers. Pasteurized milk is no more expensive, is just as healthful as raw milk. Be safe. Insist on pasteurized milk.

THE TOLL OF DEATH

Sixteen people die of tuberculosis each day of the year in Canada, most of whom could have been saved if their disease had been detected and treated in an early stage. Chest X-rays discover hidden TB, making cures easier and quicker. X-rays are simple, quick and painless. Have one today.

MORE OLDER PEOPLE

Because of advances in science and medicine, more people are living to be older and each year we have a larger proportion of older people in Canada. Many of these people past middle age are skilled craftsmen whose trade has been learned over a long period of time. They deserve a chance to put their experience to work.

COMMEND C.C.F. GOVT FOR RENT CONTROL STAND

Premier Douglas' C.C.F. government of Saskatchewan was commended for being the only provincial government in Canada to take over rent control when it was dropped by the federal government, in a resolution passed at a Yale riding conference on education and organization held in Penticton.

Over 150 delegates from various parts of the riding, attended the conference. Mrs. D. G. Steeves, provincial president said that while education of members is being discussed, education of leaders is also of utmost importance. She outlined the C.C.F. national council plans for the next three years, stating that the C.C.F. politics are not just a matter of elections, but of never-ceasing education of the people in the understanding of world affairs. B.C. is being asked to raise $25,000 from friends and members during the next three years, she declared.

Necessity of getting younger people into politics was stressed by John Dunfield, advisor for the C.C.F.'s youth movement, Tony Gargrave and Manfred Smith, all of Vancouver.

Two panels of speakers from North and South Okanagan discussed education and organization. Those taking part were Mrs. Grace Worth and Mrs. P. Hurlbutt and Mr. Richards, all of Vernon, and Bruce Woodsworth, Westbank; C. Haker, Peachland; Mrs. R. Purdy, J. Snowsall, J. Spall and Mr. Dyson, all of Kelowna, and J. Bibby, of Naramata.

J. Snowsall presided over the conference, and Mrs. R. Purdy was secretary. Those taking part in a musical program were A. Miller, E. Roberts, G. Miller, and E. Roberts, all of Oliver; Errol Gay, Penticton; E. Burnett, Kelowna; Mrs. H. S. Kenyon, Penticton, and Mrs. D. P. Fraser, Osoyoos.

SPLIT OKANAGAN BALL LOOP INTO TWO DIVISIONS

Penticton Only Canadian Team to Remain in Section with American Clubs

Okanagan Valley (International) Baseball League will operate in two divisions next year, with play-offs between the sectional winners for the league title.

The bust-up, due to transportation and organization difficulties, came at a league meeting in Olliver last week. All Canadian teams favored going on their own with the exception of Penticton.

Northern division will include Olliver, Kelowna and Kamloops from the 1949 league, and probably Princeton, Vernon and Summerland. Two other Canadian teams may be added.

In the southern section will be Penticton, Osoyoos, Okanagan, Brewster, Bridgeport and Coulee Dam and possibly another team to round out an eight-club division.

Curly Cox and "Scotty" Gordon, both of Penticton, were named president and secretary-treasurer of the southern division. Officers and organizational details for the north section will be decided upon at a meeting here in January.

Kelowna delegates to the meeting were George Menzies, retiring league secretary-treasurer, and Bob Phinney.

FLUSHING BARS WOULD OFFSET RINGNECK LOSS

The scarcity of pheasants has been a topic up for much discussion since the close of B.C.'s pheasant season. Considerable criticism of conditions and individuals responsible for the decline has been the subject of many of these.

Few, however, have come up with sound constructive criticism like that emanating from the Lower Mainland Fish and Game Zone meeting which suggested that farmers could do considerably to help offset the decline by the use of flushing bars when mowing.

According to information received from the B.C. Fish and Game Council, the flushing bar is simply a long willow branch, or stick of some kind, protruding sideways from the front of a tractor while pulling the mower.

Saves Adults
Suspended from this are several lengths of chain, or ordinary shackles, which as the tractor proceeds, drag over the nests of pheasants, flushing the birds and thereby saving at least the adult pheasants.

Hens particularly are understood, stick close to the nests when anything approaches, but the dragging chains or bags have the desired effect.

A little work and a few cents worth of materials can save a good many dollars worth of pheasants by the use of this simple device.

CLIPPERS EDGE MERCURYS
Nanaimo Clippers came from behind on home ice Tuesday night to down the Edmonton Mercurys 4-3 in an exhibition hockey game.

It was the first loss for the team that leaves this month for the world amateur hockey championships as Canada's representatives.

CANUCKS DROP BETTS
Reg Betts, centreman on Vernon Canadians' third string, was given his release over the week-end. Who would replace him wasn't immediately known.

BEARS SHARPEN CLAWS, PREPARE TO WALLOP RAINBOWS SATURDAY

KAMLOOPS cage squads will be here en masse Saturday night for the Kelowna Bears' first home appearance in league play.

"It's just as well they're bringing along a small army. They will need it!" muttered Herb Capozzi, president of the Kelowna Basketball Association and one of the Bears' mainstays.

Slightly more than perturbed at the rough going over the Bears received at Kamloops Saturday, the local senior B hoopsters are "fighting mad," according to the usually peace-loving Capozzi.

"Just wait till we get them in our own, shiny new backyard," big Herb cracked. "We're out to wallop them."

Coach Roy Longley was ominously silent. Except to predict there'll be some "score-settling" here Saturday.

Fireworks in the league fixture are due to be touched off in the new school gym at 9 p.m.

Kamloops boys will meet the United Church Tuxis Group in a junior boys opener at 7 p.m., while the Kamloops senior girls will be here for a set-to against the Kelowna Teddy Bears, slated to go at 8 p.m.

While Kamloops Rainbows meet Kelowna, Penticton Vets, currently tied with the Rainbows for the league lead, will be taking on the Summerland quintet.

COACH LINES . . . RAY POWELL

apparently didn't make the grade with the CHIAHAWKS. According to press reports he's again up near the top of the USHL with KANSAS CITY . . . There's some doubt locally whether Ray will come back to Kelowna next spring . . . Five-pinners at the Bolodrome donated $31.00 to the March of Dimes.

ROY HAMMOND left the MONARCHS here Saturday and fled to KAMLOOPS with the BEARS for the home game. He tends to stay here, too . . . JIM HANSON is learning the ice cream biz at the MILKY WAY. "Don't call me a soda jerk, please," he grinned. "It's a soda dispenser to you . . ."

VERNON — Coach Laurel Harey reshuffled his forward lines Friday night at the Civic Arena here and came up with a club that started hard, held the puck in the other end for minutes on end, but scored only once as Kereisdale Monarchs chalked up their second victory of the season by a score of 4-1.

As in the game at Kamloops the previous night, Don Saunders was a standout in the Monarchs' net, particularly during the first two periods when the Canadians had a decided edge on the play.

Bob Schmied accounted for three of Kereisdale's goals. Bob Burkosky got the other. Sole Vernon score was notched by big Dave McKay who played one of his smartest games this year.

First Period — 1. Kereisdale, Schmied (Tomsan) 14:28; 2. Vernon, McKay (Petrie, Betts) 18:09; 3. Kereisdale, Schmied (Horbe, Lovett) 19:24. Penalties — Rittinger, Furlan.

Second Period — 4. Kereisdale, Burkosky (Rittinger) 19:28. Penalty — Stecky.

Third Period — 5. Kereisdale, Sch-

IT'S REALLY EASY IF YOU KNOW THE ROPES!

Mostly of this and that . . . or ways of beating the space shortage on these pre-Christmas pages. The route from the arena press box to the downstairs peanut stand is a short one and can usually be negotiated during the rest periods in something like two minutes of squirreling, twisting, hat-tipping (to the ladies) and ducking hot coffee some adventurous folk hope to carry away with them but seldom do. I recall how I made the trip in 53 seconds flat early this season—by sliding down a rope onto the ice and slipping in the back way.

The monkey stunt was forced upon me. Anyone concession-bent knows that feeling—like one fish among millions of others, all trying to get up the falls at the same time. On the particular session before taking to the rope, I must have been waylaid every foot of the way with the schmees of others.

KERRIES LOSE TO KAMLOOPS, BEAT VERNON

(Special to The Kelowna Courier)

KAMLOOPS — Though outshooting the Kereisdale Monarchs 49-18, Kamloops Elks could only ring up a 4-2 count over the Coast sextet here Thursday night in their first of three games in as many periods during their second interior jaunt.

Cliff Mills, Kamloops' centre ace, beat the sensational Don Saunders twice; Art Thomson and Steve Witluk got the others, George Horbe and Wilf Cook scored for Monarchs.

Elks had it all over the visitors in every period of the game. The only frame in which the Coast boys fired after a trying trip over the storm-snarled highways — looked like a hockey team was the third.

First Period — 1. Kamloops, Thomson (Kirk) 5:14. Penalty — Furlan.

Second Period — 2. Kamloops, Mills (Campbell, J. Hryciuk) 13:11; 3. Kereisdale, Cook, 17:10. Penalties — Lovett, Bastien.

Third Period — 4. Kamloops, Witluk (Ursaki) 6:45; 5. Kamloops, Mills (Campbell, J. Hryciuk) 13:11; 6. Kereisdale, Horbe, 19:25. Penalties — Bastien, Terry.

VERNON — Coach Laurel Harey reshuffled his forward lines Friday night at the Civic Arena here and came up with a club that started hard, held the puck in the other end for minutes on end, but scored only once as Kereisdale Monarchs chalked up their second victory of the season by a score of 4-1.

As in the game at Kamloops the previous night, Don Saunders was a standout in the Monarchs' net, particularly during the first two periods when the Canadians had a decided edge on the play.

Bob Schmied accounted for three of Kereisdale's goals. Bob Burkosky got the other. Sole Vernon score was notched by big Dave McKay who played one of his smartest games this year.

First Period — 1. Kereisdale, Schmied (Tomsan) 14:28; 2. Vernon, McKay (Petrie, Betts) 18:09; 3. Kereisdale, Schmied (Horbe, Lovett) 19:24. Penalties — Rittinger, Furlan.

Second Period — 4. Kereisdale, Burkosky (Rittinger) 19:28. Penalty — Stecky.

Third Period — 5. Kereisdale, Sch-

RED CROSS OPENS 13TH OUTPOST HOSPITAL UNIT

The B. C. division, Canadian Red Cross opened its 13th outpost hospital unit in this province on Saturday.

The newest hospital is located at Alexis Creek in the Chilcotin District, 76 miles northwest of Williams Lake.

The citizens of Alexis Creek and surrounding areas now have protection in case of sickness or accident and year-round health checks. Nurse-in-charge of the three-bed outpost is Miss Sophie Smith, who started her frontier nursing duties with the oldest Red Cross Outpost, at Cecil Lake, which opened in 1935. Following one year's duty there, Miss Smith went to Lillooet with the understanding that when Alexis Creek was opened she would be transferred.

Opening ceremonies Saturday were attended by provincial Red Cross officials from Vancouver, representatives of the Chilcotin Hospital Society, the newly formed women's auxiliary to the Red Cross Outpost, and citizens from Alexis Creek and district.

Chairman was Duke Martin, secretary of the Chilcotin Hospital Society. When the official opening ceremonies took place, Mr. Martin unlocked the door to the outpost. Another member of the society unfurled the Red Cross flag.

Guest speakers included Dr. G. A. Lamont, M.D., provincial chairman of the Red Cross outpost hospital committee, Miss Dorothy Jack, R.N., B. C. supervisor of outpost hospitals, and representatives of the women's auxiliary and the Chilcotin Hospital Society.

The new outpost is a log structure which was formerly a hospital but has been unused for a number of years. It has been completely renovated and remodelled by Red Cross.

Although the hospital was officially opened Saturday, a number of accident cases have already received treatment by the nurse.

Kelowna In Bygone Days

From the Files of The Kelowna Courier

TEN YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 7, 1939

Indictments against individuals involved in the combine, as charged recently in the McGregor report, are being prepared and prosecutions may be expected at once.

"The citizens of Kelowna have every reason to be proud of their city administration in every way during the past year," said Mayor O. L. Jones while giving a review of the City Council's work during 1939 at Monday's meeting. Council decided not to hold a public meeting this year until after the city's financial statement is published.

Kelowna and District war charities fund is over the $14,000 mark with more still to come. Original objective by this time was set at $20,000.

Thirty Christmas trees, four feet high, will be purchased by the city at 35 cents each.

Armstrong trounced Kelowna Grizzlies 12-6 at Vernon Monday in the latter's first appearance in the North Okanagan Hockey League.

Fifty new residences valued at $132,137.50 have been constructed in Kelowna during the first 11 months of the year. Average cost of the homes was $2,642, the lowest being $750 and the highest $9,000.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 5, 1929

Voting takes place on Saturday to determine which of two young men—Bill Chater of Kelowna and Gordon Ferguson of Vernon—will win the seat in the Boys' Parliament.

General trade licence fees were doubled by a by-law passed at the last City Council meeting. Fee is now increased from $5 to $10 for six months.

A mild outbreak of scarlet fever has been controlled, according to Dr. Ootmar, medical health officer. One house had five cases and one child was a patient in the isolation hospital.

Archdeacon Thomas Greene was made an honorary member of the Kelowna Rotary Club at the regular weekly luncheon meeting.

Sixty-seven carloads of produce—12 more than during the same period last year—were shipped from Kelowna during the week ending November 30.

Virtually all of the afternoon mail now reaches Kelowna on the C.V. train instead of by the C. P. boat as formerly, thus speeding up delivery and making it possible normally for the post office staff to have the mail sorted by 3 o'clock.

Highest temperature reading during November was on the 2nd (53), while the minimum came on November 20 (18). Mean high was 41.9; mean low 28.5.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 4, 1919

State health insurance, mothers' and widows' pensions and public health nursing are being considered by the new social welfare commission set up by the Provincial Government.

The Kelowna Theatrical Society has been organized and plans to put on the Mikado next spring. Committee of management includes: W. J. Pante, president; D. W. Crowley, secretary; Drury Pryce, G. C. Benmore, H. S. Atkinson, L. Hayes, Mrs. P. Anderson and Mrs. Herga Ambler. Mr. Behmore will be stage manager and Mr. Pryce musical director.

G. A. Meikle has been appointed first president of the Kelowna branch of the Retail Merchants Association. G. S. McKenzie is vice-president; D. K. Gordon, second vice-president; W. W. Pettigrew, treasurer, and A. S. Wade secretary.

B.C. potatoes are reaching $80 a ton on the prairies.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Thursday, December 2, 1909

Provincial election of Nov. 25 reduced the Liberals to two seats, with the Conservatives getting 38 and Socialists two.

T. Lawson returned from the Coast where he attended the school trustees convention. He succeeded in bringing the convention to Kelowna in 1910.

Because many persons failed to pay their portion of his salary, the police commission has terminated the services of the night constable.

L. Holman's tobacco crop was stripped by Saturday night and he will have nearly 9,000 pounds of Havana tobacco, an average of 1,000 pounds an acre. The total yield of the Okanagan will be between 25,000 and 28,000 pounds this year.

Alderman Baily and Rowcliffe have withdrawn their resignations tendered to the City Council some time ago but held over for further consideration. They had intended resigning because of opposition to the powerhouse reconstruction by-law.

A profit of $779 was shown in the annual statement of the Agricultural and Trades Association. Directors for 1910 include D. W. Sutherland, H. W. Raymer, W. C. Blackwood, P. DuMoulin, D. W. Crowley, D. MacEachern, J. Bowes, A. McLennan, A. E. Boyer, B. McDonald, T. G. Speer, H. B. Burtch, T. Hill, R. Dolsen, J. B. Knowles and L. Holman.

OTTAWA REPORT

By O. L. JONES, M.P.

Housing and rent control were two of the subjects that had a thorough airing in the House during this last week.

The government laid bare to plans for assistance to home builders. These plans are fairly well known and in the whole were acceptable by the people who are looking forward to building and owning their own home. Speaking roughly, anyone with 10% of the total cost can secure loans for the balance. The other feature of the building scheme around the fact that a co-operative group can build homes with government money in such a way that the group belonging to such co-operatives could protect one another.

I may point out that this scheme is already in operation and has been accepted in the east more than in the west. As far as I know there is not a co-operative house building scheme in British Columbia (I may be wrong in this statement). However, I would urge municipalities and other organized bodies to look into the merits of the proposal made under this section of the act, as I fully believe that group development of this nature offers something new in the way of community home building. Areas such as the new housing area in Glenmore could be developed all over the interior of British Columbia under this scheme. The main criticism in the House was on its failure to provide cheap housing units for those in the lower income brackets. As I pointed out before, suggestions were made that such homes should be subsidized or that the government should own and then rent them to prospective tenants.

Slum clearance was another matter under discussion and from the information given, this part of the work under the National Housing Act would be speeded up in the immediate future.

Rent controls comes under another department entirely. We are still without information regarding the legality or otherwise of the federal government controlling rents. This matter has been referred to the Supreme Court. In the meantime the government has offered to turn over this field of control to the provinces. One province, Saskatchewan, has prepared legislation to step into this field immediately the federal government vacates it. One question remains, whether the rent control is a federal matter or a provincial matter. It is fairly clear that it cannot be both so that if the federal government retains control in the other nine provinces legally, one province with a control of its own could be operating beyond the law, and the question has not yet been settled which governing body would be the B.N.A. Act has control of this field. Mr. Abbott declared in the House why rent control should not be retained. From that statement I gather the federal government will soon be leaving this field; on the other hand, people right across the Dominion are wiring and writing their members to do their utmost to retain rent control at such time when the need for housing has been met.

The bill for assistance to the Pacific Great Eastern Railway has been finally passed so that in the near future this line will be extended to Prince George. The pipe line bills continue to appear before the House during the hour devoted to private bills on Tuesdays and Fridays. Speaker after speaker demanded that the bill include a clause whereby the lines shall pass through British Columbia territory before reaching the United States, so that it may be impossible during the present session to reach a final agreement on these two bills. I am not going to take your time entering into the merits or otherwise of the proposed bill. Sufficient to say that I think the interests of British Columbia would be better served if these pipe lines were to go first through British Columbia to Vancouver and thence south to Seattle, Tacoma and Portland.

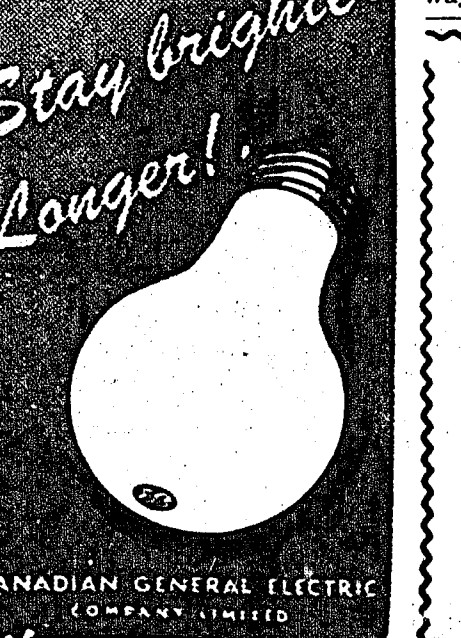

Three new departments have been set up by the government:

1. Department of resources and development;
2. Department of mines and technical surveys;
3. Citizenship and immigration.

In the past the work that will be carried on in these new departments has been neglected because it was carried out under the departments that were already over-worked. The general feeling is that the move is a good one and will tend to give better service to the Dominion as a whole, particularly the department set up to look after after the development of natural resources. The national trademark act came in for a good deal of discussion and has now passed its third reading. Under this act certain commodities will be entitled after scientific tests has proved that the product is of high quality to use the National Trade Mark (Canadian Standard C.S.). We in the C.P.T. tried to move an amendment whereby any product applying for the national trade mark should first of all prove that it has maintained the "fair wage policy" in the production of that product. This amendment was defeated. High standards have been set by the government before any product can qualify for the privilege of using the national Canadian standard articles will become known throughout the world. I suggested during the debate that any container, box, bottle, can or otherwise that had on it the national trade mark should be destroyed immediately after the goods contained therein had been consumed. I mentioned this because I have noticed in some stores in this town, Okanagan Valley boxes with the "O.K." brand still being used to hold and display apples, tomatoes, lemons and other products, certainly not grown in our valley.

The Trans-Canada highway has also been approved, although a lengthy discussion took place on this highway. There was not a single speaker who condemned it or even suggested that the highway was not needed. Discussions centered around the cost to be given to the various provinces. The proposal is very simple. The government is to pay half the cost and the province the other half up to a total over all cost of $300,000,000. Any provincial government who has part of this highway already built, such as the Fraser Canyon highway will be compensated to the extent of half that cost already expended. In many cases this payment for cost of work already done by provincial governments will be sufficient to enable the province to continue with the unfinished part of the road so that we in B.C. should benefit greatly by the fact that we have already made considerable progress in the building of a Trans-Canada highway.

Over 200 Attend Turkey Supper At East Kelowna

EAST KELOWNA—Over 200 people attended the turkey supper held in the Community Hall last Saturday which was sponsored by the East Kelowna branch of the Women's Institute.

The hall was artistically decorated for the occasion. The supper tables were attractive with flowers and streamers of the Institute colors, gold, green and white. The dinner was topped off with East Kelowna's famous apple pie, served with ice cream.

After supper, guests enjoyed bingo and card games, followed by dancing with music by the local orchestra. Mrs. A. F. K. James and Mrs. George Davidson were in charge of the needlework stall, where there was a good selection of seasonal and useful articles for sale with a variety of house plants. Jellied turkey made by Mrs. R. A. Widmeyer and Christmas pudding made by Mrs. W. Fairweather were attractively wrapped and quick-sold.

Charlie Wilson was the winner of the 10-pound turkey. Included in the many guests from Kelowna were: J. Young, E. Gregory, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Wardlaw.

WINFIELD MAN PROUD OWNER 100 POUND PIG

WINFIELD—A successful "turkey bingo" was held in the Memorial Hall last Friday evening, the proceeds of which go to the fund for completing the building.

Over 250 people turned out for the occasion and the prizes were ten turkeys, 15 hams and several boxes of chocolates.

The door prize was a 100-pound pig, either alive or dressed as preferred, and the lucky winner was Bert Ramsay.

The evening was successful both socially and financially, proceeds amounting to around $400. The host committee was pleased over the community spirit shown by the people in turning out in such a large number.

The local Farmers' Institute held a meeting in the hall on Tuesday evening, with sixteen present.

The December meeting of the United Church Women's Federation will be held on Monday, Dec. 12 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. A. Teel.

Master Leslie Pow returned home on Saturday from Kelowna hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Miles McDonagh has been a patient in Vernon Jubilee Hospital for the past two weeks.

Frankie Hitchman suffered a disagreeable accident last week. While getting into the truck, he slipped and cut his face on an axe. This required several stitches and a few days in hospital.

Members of "Teen Town" will hold a dance in the hall on Friday evening, Dec. 9.

EAST KELOWNA PUPILS TO GET HOT LUNCHES

SOUTH KELOWNA—Announcement that four new members had joined the Parent-Teacher Association here was made at the regular monthly meeting of the South Kelowna P.T.A. held last Monday evening at the school. Vice-president A. Duke took the chair in the absence of president F. Whinton. Minutes of the previous meeting read by Mrs. Dunlop were adopted as read and were followed by the report of treasurer, I. Foster. Formation of a discussion group which was to have started this month, was postponed to a later date due to the number of other activities previously scheduled.

Decision was made to hold a social evening on Wednesday, December 28. Mr. Burke was appointed Master of Ceremonies for the evening.

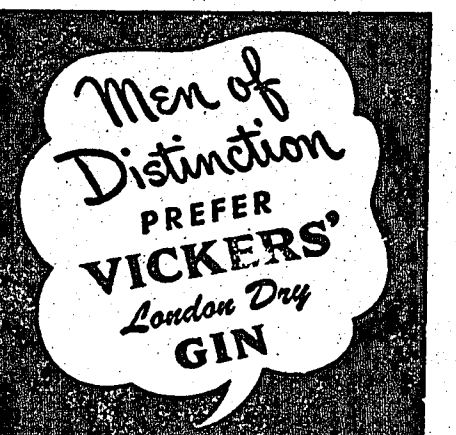

I. Foster was asked to find a guest speaker for the next regular meeting of the P.T.A. which will be held on January 9. Decision was also made to start serving hot lunches for the school children commencing January 3. All proceeds from the whist drives go towards buying milk and cocoa for the lunches.

Following the adjournment of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Dunlop and Mrs. Taylor.

Goalers Shine as Packers,
Canucks Fight to 5-5 Tie

(Special to The Kelowna Courier)

VERNON—League-leading Kelowna Packers and the third-place Vernon Canadians fought to a thrilling 5-5 overtime deadlock Tuesday night before 1,500 cheering fans in Civic Arena.

The hard-fought draw left standings unchanged, though on the percentage basis, Packers dropped from .583 to .579. Vernon remained static at .500, tied with Nanaimo and trailing second-place Kamloops Elks.

The one-two in the Mainline-Okanagan senior hockey circuit form battle lines on Memorial Arena ice in Kelowna Thursday (tonight) in a send-off for the Packers first jaunt to the Coast. (Packers, after entertaining Kamloops here tonight, show in Kerrisdale tomorrow and at Nanaimo Saturday.)

GOALERS SHINE—ADD 10 2 COL From the drop of the puck Tuesday night, the Canucks skated like a new team. They outbattled and outshot the Packers in every session of regulation time. The brilliant work of goalie Al Laface in the Kelowna net kept the Stewartmen in the game.

But nothing could be taken away from the loop leaders. They also played it hard and rough and earned the draw.

Gets Equalizer Ex-Winnipegger Jim Middleton saved the day for the Packers at the 11:38-minute mark of the final stanza. Taking a relay from Denny Semenchuk, who had accepted the puck from playing-coach Ken Stewart, big Middleton gave Glen Bowler no chance from close in to send the game into overtime.

The Packers carried the majority of the play in the extra session, giving Bowler a sizzling time. Jim Hanson, Frank Hoskins and Bud Gourlie all blew perfect opportunities to be the heroes but they were unable to net the Bowler defence. Canucks also were not wanting in chances in the extra session. Len Wallington, Bud Kobussen and Tom Stecyk gave the sensational Laface a bad scare. Despite the 10 goals scored, Laface and Bowler were by far the outstanding figures on the ice.

Come From Behind End to end rushes and mix-ups galore was the pattern of play and every time Bowler or Laface was in the middle of the action.

THREE SHUTOUTS
IN BANTAM PLAY

For the second time this season, all three games in the Saturday bantam hockey ended in shutouts.

Albert Klingbeil earned his third goose-egg job this winter as his Maple Leaf team mates scored a 3-0 win over the Canadians. McGladery with a pair and Bedell with the other were the Leafman marksmen.

Dale Gregory came through with his second shutout as the Hawks blasted Rangers 4-0 with Warren Hoskins plying snipers with two goals. Twelve brother Wayne got the third and Knorr the other.

In the Red Wings' 1-0 victory over the Bruins, Cee Hepper was the unscathed custodian and Billy Povey the only goal-getter.

This Saturday's schedule at Memorial Arena is: Canadians vs. Bruins 8:30; Leafs vs. Rangers, 9:30; Hawks vs. Wings, 10:30.

KODIAKS' LAST PERIOD UPRISING
JUST FAILS TO CATCH KAMLOOPS

Faced with a 5-0 deficit with more than half the game gone, Kelowna Kin-Kodiaks almost turned the tide Tuesday night as they scored four goals in the last period to bring down the Kamloops juniors 5-4 in a thrill-packed exhibition junior hockey game at Kamloops.

Never once giving up the ghost though things looked dark as the inside of a coal car at night, the Kodiaks had the homesters on the ropes in the last period. Only sparkling net-minding by F. Pipolo retained the slim margin of victory for the Kamloops.

Thompson and Simpson, with two goals each, sparked the late Kodiak uprising. Goal-getters for the winners were Freeman, Palmer, Gaber, Garay and N. Brkich.

The victorious Kamloops squad will play a re-ignited engagement against the Kodiaks here next Tuesday—the main item on the Minor Hockey Night bill. A juvenile game also is carded.

"If the boys play here Tuesday as they did during the last half of the game at Kamloops, they should win easily," predicted Herb Sullivan, Kodiaks' coach.

KAMLOOPS—Pippolo, N. Brkich, Sakofsky, Garay, Wyman, J. Brkich, Blair, MacDonald, Kato, Freeman, Palmer, Gaber, McEneaney. First period—Kamloops, Freeman (Garay) 8:16; 2, Kamloops, Palmer (McEneaney) 17:41. Penalties: Blair, J. Brkich, Carew.

Second period—Kamloops, Gaber 6:35; Kamloops, Garay (Freeman) 6:39; 5, Kamloops, N. Brkich,

HANSON'S KAYCEE
MIDGETS FINALLY SCORED AGAINST

Knights of Columbus kept their undefeated record in the Mid-gut Hockey League intact Monday when they trimmed Rutland 5-1 at Memorial Arena.

Wickieleser opened the scoring for Rutland and when he beat Larry Chatham in the Kaycee net, it was the first time Jim Hanson's boys were scored on in this year.

The Knights retaliated with five goals in a row to walk away with the verdict. Goal-getters were Wheatley, Klingbeil, Schefer, Selzer and Folk.

Next Monday Air Cadets take on Knights of Columbus at 4 p.m.

Packers Face Crucial Test
Starting With Elks Tonight

Stiffest test of endurance yet to face the Kelowna Packers runs on from tonight to Saturday inclusive.

Three games in as many nights—with some 300 miles to travel between Thursday and Friday night and a salt-water voyage between Friday and Saturday games.

Most crucial of the three is the battle on home ice tonight. If the Packers pull off a win as they have done in the majority of the meetings with Kamloops, the Elks still wouldn't be able to take over top spot from the Packers no matter what happened over the week-end.

But a loss to Kamloops tonight, and a split on the trip to the Coast combined with a Kamloops home win against Vernon Saturday would leave the Elks on top and Packers in second slot. Game time here tonight is 8:30.

Packers and a few faithful followers leave here for Vancouver tomorrow by bus on the 7 a.m. ferry. Late Wednesday there still were a few seats available for anyone wishing to make the trip with the Packers.

Two players, other than regulars, may be taken along by Coach Ken Stewart as insurance against injuries on the Coast trek. After playing in Kerrisdale tomorrow night and in Nanaimo Saturday, Packers expect to return here by Sunday night.

ANGLERS STILL BRINGING HOME
THE 'WHOPPERS'

Four more reasons for spending idle hours on Okanagan Lake with line and tackle were brought to the surface during the past week.

K. Lo, Rutland, C. F. Sarsons, Okanagan Mission, and K. Yamaoka, Rutland, all landed Kamloops trout weighing 15 pounds.

Alderman R. F. L. Keller, in one of his few off-moments from civic business, hooked an eleven-pounder also in Mission Bay.

A short time ago, seven fish aggregating 80 pounds, were caught in the same area over a three-day period.

MAN CONVICTED DRIVING WHILE INTOXICATED

Warren J. Brown was convicted in city police court after a day's trial Tuesday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. Police Magistrate remanded Brown on bail of $500 until December 13 for sentence.
Charge arose from an accident early November 27 when a car operated by Brown struck another car parked on Pender Street, near Buckland Avenue, causing heavy damage but no injuries.

Committee Will Probe Community Chest Plan

WHEELS were set in motion Tuesday night towards what may become a community chest fund for Kelowna. A meeting of civic, service clubs and other organization representatives decided to set up a fact-finding committee, headed by Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games. The committee was charged with obtaining all possible information on forming community chests to present a working plan to a similar meeting to be called at the discretion of the mayor.

"There has been a long-felt need in this community for one over-all plan for raising money for charitable and non-charitable purposes," said Mrs. G. Rannard, chairman of the meeting, in opening the discussions.

One of the few women and men who have been conducting nearly all the canvasses in drives over the past few years, Mrs. Rannard believed she was in a position to speak first-hand about the public reception to donating and the viewpoint of the canvassers themselves.

"Honeycomb's Over" "Everybody is just sick to death of repeated appeals for money," she declared. As for the voluntary canvassers, some of them, Mrs. Rannard said, were ready now to fold up in despair.

"As you have no idea how strong the feeling against canvassing is until you go out and do it yourself," she remarked.

Bucking up her stand that "financially, the honeycomb's over," Mrs. Rannard cited results of the recent drive of the Students Assistance Association. According to reliable information she had been given, it will take a "miracle" for the drive to net $4,500 of the $10,000 objective.

Criticism was voiced by many of those present over reports the Red Cross Society and the Salvation Army would not join up with a community chest plan.

One spokesman predicted in the next two years public resistance to repeated appeals for money would be so strong that those opposed to a community chest would have to organize such a plan to survive.

Public Opinion Guide "A community chest is the only practical thing for a community like this," opined His Worship. He revealed there was no way of forcing a group to come in or stay out of a community chest fund.

N. J. Waddington Elected Head of Rutland Growers

RUTLAND—Officers of the Rutland local of the B.C.F.G.A. were elected by acclamation at the annual meeting held in the Community Hall Friday night.

Chairman for the coming year will be N. J. Waddington; secretary treasurer, Fred Stevens, Jr.; directors Archie Weigh-ton, Charles Buckland, J. Duncan, S. Kornze, and I. Haddon. Delegates to the annual B.C.F.G.A. convention to be held in Penticton in January will be A. W. Gray, C. Buckland, S. Kornze and Kermit Eutin. Chief speaker was Ivor J. Newman, president of the fruit growers' association, who gave a resume of the recent annual meeting of the B.C. Federation of Agriculture held in Vancouver.

He urged growers to support the efforts of the federation, provincially and federally, and referred to the effectiveness of united action in obtaining government co-operation. Every group today is unionized, and the grower must strengthen his organizations to protect his interests, Mr. Newman declared.

The meeting considered a resolution presented by K. Eutin, calling for the setting up of an inspection staff of three or four fully qualified experts in an endeavor to bring uniformity in packing, labeling, stamping and boxing of fruit. This would replace the present larger group of Tree Fruit inspectors, whose work, he said, duplicates in many ways, that of government inspectors and rotating them around various packing houses.

Financial Statement The motion was eventually adopted as a recommendation to the committee set up by Tree Fruits to look into the question of uniformity. The financial statement presented by retiring secretary-treasurer, Charles Buckland, showed a balance of $40 in the ordinary account, and a balance of $180 in the airport park account. There is a loan from the bank of $1,800 against the property, but on the credit side, about $900 is outstanding on sale of lots, and property valued at over $1,300 is unsold. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

J. B. Harris, formerly from Alberta, has purchased two acres from Paul Bach, immediately opposite the new United Church, and will take up residence there shortly. He plans to build near the Pentecostal Church.

Rutland school basketballers journeyed to Vernon on Saturday last for a series of games with Vernon teams. The senior high girls and the junior high boys were victorious, but the senior high boys and junior high girls took the short end of the score against their counterparts from Vernon.

LEGION PLANS YULE PARTY FOR CHILDREN

Plans have been completed for the annual Christmas party for children of ex-servicemen to be held at the Canadian Legion hall on December 17.

A general meeting of the organization was held in the newly-renovated premises last night, with president Jack Gordon occupying the chair. As from January 1, general meetings will be held every month, with the exception of June, July and August. A smoker, or some form of entertainment will be held following the meetings.

The meeting endorsed the action of the Legion executive in entering into a catering agreement with Taylor Catering Service.

Committee reports were submitted.

Our aim is to be worthy of your confidence.

More About MUCH INTEREST

From Page 1, Column 7
A. G. Gibbs; Mrs. Hazel Grantham; D. W. Haddleton; J. G. Harris; W. Hunt; N. D. McKerracher; George Morrison; E. W. Mutch. Seeking the one-year term are: E. A. Titchmarsh; C. C. Hanson; Charles Phillips; George Wharton.

Four are running for the two vacant Penticton district school board seats: Mrs. Irene Burleigh; R. C. Gordon; H. A. Leroy; Mrs. Hester White.

But not content with a hot election, Penticton also will vote on two bylaws and a referendum. There is a school bylaw for $164,000 and the contentious memorial arena bylaw for $170,000. The council refused to have anything to do with the arena bylaw but by petition and public opinion was forced to present this bylaw. It will be interesting to see whether all those who supported the petition will cast ballots for the bylaw now that it has come right down to cases.

The referendum in Penticton is to obtain general public opinion on another contentious point. The department of public works and the board of trade have suggested that the reconstructed Okanagan highway should remain on the west side of the river from Krueger Hill to Okanagan Lake. This would bypass the town and the tourist camp owners have been opposing the move. They want the highway routed through the town and, so, past their camps.

Peachland In Peachland an interesting situation has developed. Some contend that Peachland would be better off as an unorganized territory. It is now as a rural municipality. G. W. Hawley is actively campaigning on the platform that if he is elected as reeve he will take steps to disincorporate the municipality. He is being opposed by Fred Topham Jr.

There are two councilors to be elected for two-year terms and one for a one-year term. The voters will choose from the following: C. F. Bradley; A. E. Miller; R. C. Haddleton; D. E. Sutherland; C. H. Topham; Peter Topham; G. J. Sanderson; S. H. Wiberg; W. B. Sanderson.

Peachland will also vote on a $9,000 school bylaw.

Glenmore With C. M. Lipsett being given an acclamation for the reeve of Glenmore, interest there centers upon the two council seats being contested by Malcolm Chaplin, Felix Sutton and S. J. Glen. More people wanting transportation to the polls on Saturday should call 978-R or 594-R.

G. C. Hume was again named Glenmore representative on district 23 school board.

Voters will also express their opinion on a $13,000 school bylaw.

Today, Thursday, Vernon voters are electing two aldermen and voting on a bylaw and referendum.

Mayor Adams was given an acclamation, but Frank C. Ryall, Frank J. Telfer and W. H. Wintrey are all seeking the two vacant council seats.

Vernon ratepayers will express their opinion on three bylaws. One is a $25,000 sewer construction bylaw. Another would sell the present city hall site for $10,000 while the third grants Carswell Bus Lines a 10-year franchise.

In the referendum voters will decide whether or not Vernon will join the Okanagan Union Library setup.

Horse racing, according to ancient drawings is at least 3,000 years old.

CONSTIPATION SUFFERERS

Why experiment with harsh, irritating laxatives when you can help relieve your condition with the wholesome, gently laxative cereal, Roman Meal? Here is a tried and tested formula, developed by Herbert G. Jackson, M.D., that combines the natural food values and delicious flavors of whole wheat and whole rye with the gentle, laxative properties of flaxseed, bran and bran. Thousands of sufferers have written to us praising the laxative qualities of Roman Meal. You, too, may find relief with this valuable energy food. Ask your grocer for Roman Meal.

Mr. INVESTOR

Has it occurred to you that you may be missing a very safe investment by not purchasing revenue producing Real Estate?

Ten years ago when property was selling at less than half what it is today, you passed it up. Two years ago you were all quite sure that the peak of building costs were reached. Today costs are up 8 per cent over that period. Wages seem to be about to have another round of increases which will put up the costs of building still further. From time to time we get very attractive buys; why not call in and talk it over?

Westbank W.I. Looks Back on Active Year as 1950 Officers Are Elected

By DOROTHY GELLATLY

WESTBANK—A score of worthy local and outside projects have been assisted during the past year by Westbank Institute, and the average attendance of eleven members throughout the nine meetings reveals the will-to-serve and the willing co-operation combined in that small body of women.

Financial assistance has been given to such worthwhile causes as the hospital and the David Lloyd-Jones Home at Kelowna; the National Institute for the Blind; the Red Cross and the Home Ec. Memorial Fund at U.B.C. The Institute also took charge of the cancer drive here in which $262.15 was collected.

Materials have been provided for the outfitting of the public health nurse and for the local first aid stretcher. Several overseas parcels to their adopted Institute in Hereford were mailed by the members during the year, one of which contained a birthday cake for that Institute's coming-of-age party. Westbank Institute itself celebrated its own twenty-first birthday in April when a considerable number of charter members were present.

The organizing of well-baby clinics, sewing classes and a drama class all have come under the sponsorship of Westbank Women's Institute. Besides these, responsibility for the blood donor clinic and the T.B. clinic was assumed by the local women. Mrs. J. H. Blackley convened the arrangements for the T.B. clinic and later was commended by those in charge for her splendid planning. Lastly, the annual fair—started during the early 30's and abandoned during the war years—is assuming greater proportions than ever, and the Institute gratefully acknowledges the assistance, financial and otherwise, given them during the past two years by members of Westbank Board of Trade.

Sewing Classes
President Mrs. T. B. Reece occupied the chair for the November (annual) meeting, at which directors of the two sewing classes being conducted under Mrs. Purlow, teacher of Home Ec. at George Frings High, reported good progress and keen appreciation of these classes.

Mrs. M. E. G. Pritchard is making final arrangements for the proposed class in drama and a meeting is being held at once to decide on a play. Interest in this class also is keen.

A film showing the technique of quilting with a discussion on designs will be shown in the school auditorium soon, to which girls of the high school will be invited. This film is available through the vital education service, Extension Dept., U.B.C. and shows three styles of designs: the geometric of South Wales; the floral of Somerset and the feather of Durham. The film ends with a display of quilted articles on exhibition at Playford.

Blood Donor Clinic
During the past month the Institute has completed a quilt for the Red Cross. In connection with Red Cross work Mrs. W. H. Moffat, convenor, outlined activities of her committee. In May the first Westbank panel of donors for the first blood transfusion service was set up. Total of 15 pledge cards were signed following an intensive campaign. The local trade board took charge of transporting donors requiring to be taken to and from Kelowna, and the number attending the clinic was close to 100. The second clinic, held this fall, was not so well attended, due in great part to the busy season of the year.

Mrs. Moffat expressed her thanks to all who worked so faithfully to make Westbank's contribution so outstanding on this occasion. In paying tribute to donors who gave their blood, she reminded them that perhaps there is given to man no greater privilege than that of saving the life of a fellow man. Reporting also for the public health committee Mrs. Moffat spoke of the X-ray of the Indian children and the difficulty experienced in carrying this to a successful conclusion. Full co-operation by the Institute was promised Miss Apple-

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday, each week, Canadian National operates a through sleeping car from the Okanagan for passengers destined to Prairie, Eastern Canada and U.S. points. Awaits next morning aboard The Continental Limited. Okanagan sleeper goes as far as Blue River, where passenger transfer is arranged to space already reserved.

And, of course, the C.N.R. also operates a through sleeper to Vancouver, six days a week.

Your train leaves Kelowna, 4:45 p.m., except Sunday.

EIGHT TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS BUT DAMAGE HEAVY

Despite the fact there were only eight traffic accidents reported to city police during the month of November amounted to $1,042.08, according to the monthly report tabled at council meeting Monday night.

Commenting on conditions generally, Police Chief R. B. McKay stated that in co-operation with and with the assistance of the local fire department, "the offence of smoking in Memorial Arena was checked with the result that seven persons appeared in police court and were all convicted."

Continuing the chief said that due to the general quietness of the month, "we were able to give more attention to bicycle traffic in the city with the result that fifteen adults appeared in police court charged with bicycle offences. Numerous juveniles were also checked for these offences."

Cost Fines
Fines and costs paid to the city last month amounted to $307.50. Value of property reported stolen totalled $443.50, while none of the stolen goods were recovered. During the course of patrols and other duties the following items were noticed and given attention: Petty complaints received and investigated, 25; transients attracting attention and checked, 34; bushes found insecure at night, 18; street lights out of order and reported, 8; children lost, searched for and found, 2; traffic accidents, 8; persons injured in traffic accidents, 5; damage sustained as result of traffic accidents, $1,042.08; cyclists warned regarding minor infractions, 47; motorists warned regarding minor infractions, 51; bicycles reported stolen or lost, 26; bicycles recovered and returned to owners, 22.

A detailed list of convictions showed that no one was prosecuted for over-parking. One man was fined $15 and costs under section 28 of the highway act, and this was in connection with parking a vehicle too far from the curb which resulted in a automobile accident.

CANADA'S ECONOMIC PROSPECTS REVIEWED BY B of M PRESIDENT

B. C. Gardner Sees Country's Dynamic Growth Comparable To United States' After World War I

RESOURCES, DEPOSITS, PASS TWO BILLION MARK; SAVINGS AND LOANS AT RECORD—REPORTS GORDON BALL, GENERAL MANAGER

A parallel between Canada's present industrial potentialities and those of the United States in the years following World War I was drawn by the president of the Bank of Montreal, B.C. Gardner, at the recent 132 annual meeting. While recognizing problems relating to condition and prospects in the export markets, the course of Canadian economic events, he said, had "a good many healthy and reassuring aspects".

The relative stability of the Canadian business trend was the most noteworthy feature of the year, Mr. Gardner said. Canada's resistance to recessive influences, he emphasized, is due to a vigorous program of industrial expansion based, not so much on the "outlook for business next year or the year after," as on the country's "magnificent long-term potentialities" and its acquired self-confidence and industrial know-how.

Gordon R. Ball, general manager, presented a balance sheet featuring deposits and resources both in excess of two billion dollars. The amounts, in each instance, were: deposits, $2,019,000,000; resources, $2,140,000,000. Current loans and discounts in Canada of $442,000,000, he stated, were at the highest year-end figures in the history of the bank. Investments had increased to $1,168,000,000, a gain during the year of $35,000,000.

Canada's Dollar Dilemma
The B of M president reviewed the many problems created by the dollar shortage. While Canada was not living beyond her means, he said, the inability to convert sterling into U.S. dollars posed a difficult problem. He considered that "the broad trend of Canadian economic development seems logically to point to a closer balance in trade with our nearest neighbour".

Discussing Canadian attempts to remedy the underlying imbalance in overseas trade, Mr. Gardner said that our U.S. dollar situation limited our capacity to extend further aid outside normal trading. Almost inevitably, he believed, there would be a contraction in our exports to traditional overseas markets. He further expressed the opinion that the greatest contribution the United States could make towards world recovery was a liberal tariff policy coupled with a courageous program of overseas investment.

World Economic Order
Turning to the question of world economic order, Mr. Gardner stated that "the concept of an international economic order has long existed, and for many people it is not even an ideal." He deplored the restrictions and expedients introduced by many countries which rendered inoperative "the forces of corrective adjustment through the processes of the market place".

Recent currency devaluations, the speaker considered, were a "long step towards realism", but he expressed doubt that rates established by "governmental fiat" could reflect actual values. He suggested that trade expansion might well be encouraged by the admittedly bold step of permitting "a range of variation in exchange rates, cushioned perhaps by a stabilization fund designed to prevent violent short-term fluctuations". He went on to suggest that the International Monetary Fund's ban on free exchange rates should now be reexamined in the light of experience.

Mr. Gardner suggested that the ultimate goal was an international economy capable of functioning "on its own". The necessity of international standards of living in countries having difficulty in balancing their accounts with the dollar area was generally acknowledged, he said. But "that will require huge additions and improvements to capital equipment". Was the necessary capital likely to be forthcoming, he asked, under conditions wherein the world's growth in public budgets devitalized both the ability to provide and the incentive to employ the capital that is the lifeblood of productive efficiency? He wondered, too, about the effect of an addition to the nationalization of industry.

Mr. Gardner said in conclusion "There is a vast reservoir of energy released for recovery in the incentives which impel the individual to improve his position in life, which stimulate adaptability and inventive genius and which encourage the development of new processes, products and markets. The great task of the present is to provide an environment in which these fundamental and powerful forces may once more be put fruitfully to work".

General Manager's Address
In his address to the shareholders, Mr. Ball referred to the transfer of four million dollars from the profit and loss account to the reserve fund as being due to "the continued growth of our deposit liabilities to the public".

The general manager recalled that earlier in the year, for the first time in the history of any Canadian bank, savings deposits passed the billion-dollar mark. "We are deeply conscious of our responsibility,"

YOUTH STEALS MONEY FROM GRANDPARENTS

PENTICTON — A 20-year-old youth, Lawrence H. Carroll, received a year jail sentence from the court last week on a charge of stealing $322 from his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. Carlson, of Penticton. He pleaded guilty of the charge.

Magistrate G. A. McLelland, who passed sentence, added a recommendation that Carroll be sent to the Boralist institution at New Haven.

The recommendation was made by the magistrate after he heard a plea from the boy's mother for leniency. She told the court that since breaking his back some months ago young Carroll had been unable to work. She asked that in the event of a heavy sentence, some arrangement be made for sending the boy to an industrial school of some sort where he could learn a trade and "become a useful citizen".

Carroll stole the money from a cash box in the house of his grandparents at 175 Coscar Avenue, on November 1. The cash box, worth $700 for one was in full accord. In fact six weeks ago I ordered $200 worth of Christmas decorations. Last week my staff worked overtime to decorate the store. I noticed where the city council had agreed the main street should be decorated this week. But the biggest surprise was to come.

Part of the money was used to purchase a car in which the youth left for Oliver where he was found the next day. At that time he had the car and $112 in cash. Magistrate McLelland told the grandparents that they would have been wiser to have had their money in the bank than to have it lying around the house. To this, Mrs. Carlson declared that it was hand that way and saved "running to the bank whenever we needed money".

Previous Convictions
A list of previous convictions on forgery and theft charges was read to the court. Carroll denied several of them and his mother and grandparents also protested that "they certainly are not all his," and that "there must be some mistake—some error in the way the list was compiled".

However, the Magistrate said that regardless of whether or not all of the convictions could be attributed to him, the charge before him, at that time was serious enough and would influence him most in passing sentence.

In his own behalf, accused stated that he was "sorry" for what he had done and that he now realized "how wrong it was".

The car was purchased for $437 from a local garage. Magistrate McLelland suggested that the grandparents try and arrange a transfer of the car to their ownership as it was not in his jurisdiction to make any decision in regard to its disposal. Previous owner of the car had refused to take it back, Mrs. Carroll told court.

From the B of M Capital

Culminating negotiations that have been carried on for some time, and which were brought to a climax on the premier's last visit to Ottawa, Colonel P. J. Mead, former deputy commissioner of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and Commissioner J. Shirras of the provincial police have been appointed to the Doukhobor question and to carry out a plan which they have devised and which has received approval of the provincial government, it was announced by Premier Byron Johnson following further conversations with Hon. Stuart Garson, minister of justice at Ottawa.

The plan, which it is not possible to divulge for security reasons, is being carried out forthwith and the government is hopeful that the situation will be brought under control as a result thereof, the premier added.

The premier stated that Hon. Mr. Strath and he had been in long-distance telephone conversation with Hon. Mr. Garson and had been informed that the minister of justice had advised the House of Commons that the dominion government had appointed Colonel Mead to act with Commissioner Shirras to form a commission with the federal authorities were first started by Hon. Gordon S. Wismer, attorney-general, and later supplemented by Hon. W. T. Strath, acting attorney-general.

It was pointed out by the federal authorities that they had no jurisdiction in the field of administering justice in the province of British Columbia, but they appreciated to the full the serious condition that existed and were willing to co-operate to the fullest extent.

On the premier's last visit to Ottawa, he discussed the matter once again with Hon. Mr. Garson and at that time was assured that a suitable person would be secured to assist the British Columbia police in handling the Doukhobor problem. The minister of justice had in mind at that time Colonel Mead and was not sure whether he was available. Since then, his services have been engaged, and a series of conferences have been held with Commissioner Shirras.

Sale of Debentures
Finance Minister Herbert Anscombe announced the sale of $15,000,000 of 3½ per cent bonds at an interest cost to the province of 3.15 per cent. The proceeds of the issue will be used for the province's highway and bridge building program and for the buildings at the University of British Columbia.

The sale was made to a syndicate headed by Mill Spence and Company Limited and included the Bank of Montreal, Bell Guinlock, McLeod Young and Company and McMahon and Burns.

Forest Licence
A forest management licence covering 100,000 acres in the Quatsino Sound area has been approved by the cabinet and was announced by Lands and Forests Minister E. T. Kenney.

The licence was issued to the British Columbia Pulp and Paper Company which operates a pulp mill at Port Alice.

A man who signs himself "A Merchant" writes:

Your new column Squawks 'n' Beefs is very welcome. It gives the readers of your valuable newspaper an opportunity to let off steam, which they would otherwise be unable to do for fear of arousing the ire of the citizens at large. This is my pet beef. Two weeks ago I noticed your editorial regarding Christmas decorations. You urged the city to erect Christmas trees on Bernard Avenue well ahead of Christmas, and at the same time thought retail merchant should co-operate by decorating their stores.

Your sentiments no doubt met with the approval of the majority of one was in full accord. In fact six weeks ago I ordered $200 worth of Christmas decorations. Last week my staff worked overtime to decorate the store. I noticed where the city council had agreed the main street should be decorated this week. But the biggest surprise was to come.

Right about this time city workers were erecting the trees on Monday morning. Within a few hours they were finished. Around 4 o'clock the street lights were turned on. I saw less than a dozen colored lights shining from each of the three large trees erected on the main street.

What's the matter with this city anyway. It's always been noted in the past for doing things "brown on both sides." Why in Sam Heck couldn't more higher level of strategy through the trees? Better not to have any lights at all than to have such a small number. There was a time when it was hard to get Christmas tree lights. But the lights have been over for four years. And while we are on the subject, why couldn't a few pine cones and branches be attached to the lamp posts?

Drive through any of the small towns across the line today, and you will find the streets and ALL the stores gaily decorated. Far out at Kelowna, decorations, and you'll agree it is a half-hearted effort.

Why don't ALL the merchants endeavor to decorate their stores, instead of leaving it to the old retailers? Is it because they are too anxious to "take in" and give nothing? If every store in Kelowna went all out on Christmas decorations, there would be less tendency for people to shop through mail order houses. Only by decorating the streets and stores can one expect the public to get in the Christmas buying spirit.

Yours for bigger and better Christmas decorations.

LOCAL STORE IS FEATURED IN MAGAZINE

Owen and Johnston, Ltd., men's wear specialists in Kelowna, received a good plug in the "Canadian Reporter" an international men's wear magazine published in Toronto, in connection with the fashion show held at the Kelowna Aquatic Club last summer.

A whole page is devoted to a write-up and five photographs. With a heading "Joint Fashion Show Pays Off in Increased Sales," the story reads as follows:

"Owen and Johnston Ltd., men's wear store of Kelowna, B.C., combined with Heather's, a women's wear store, to bring to Kelowna the first fashion show of its kind ever held in Western Canada. The show was held at the Kelowna Aquatic Club and was attended by a capacity crowd."

"Models for the evening were local celebrities and merchants who were guided through their paces by Bert Johnston, of Owen and Johnston. Highlight was that if so-and-so half hour show was a novel display of the latest in men's styles, for fall and winter. One of the most spectacular items in this group was a patchwork sports jacket."

"Well-known citizens such as golf captain Doug Disney, sportscaster Jim Panton, Glen Weyenberg and Bill Hillier carefully showed off their latest suits, casual sports jackets, practical overcoats, and smoothly tailored evening wear. The garments modelled pointed up the newest trends in slant waistlines, self-linings, and the late in evening wear including the new tartan cummerbunds."

"The tremendous bursts of applause which greeted every male as he appeared on the runway bespoke the wisdom of using community figures as models for a show of this kind. Feeling among the men present was that if so-and-so can look good in that outfit, so can I. This sort of clever merchandizing paid off in large dividends to Owen and Johnston who report a noticeable increase in sales of those items modelled."

New Trade Bulletin
A new bulletin designed to circulate industrial and trade enquiries received by the department of trade and industry, from many sources has been released, it was announced by Hon. L. H. Eyles, minister of trade and industry.

The bulletin is designed to bring to the attention of manufacturers, exporters and importers items of information received by the department concerning the expansion of trade.

LARGE CLOTHING SHIPMENT SENT GREEK PEOPLE

Forty-one cases, the largest shipment of Canadian Red Cross relief clothing to be sent directly overseas from B.C., left Vancouver recently aboard the American freighter, "Longview Victory" bound for Greece.

With the closing of the London office of Red Cross, which did the distribution during the war, all shipments are being sent direct.

The first shipment was sent last August, containing 28 cases.

The second shipment, containing 5,226 pounds of children's and adults clothing, valued at $7,010.00 is being sent to the Greek Red Cross in Athens for distribution, a gift of the Red Cross in B.C.

All the articles were made by the Red Cross women's work committees through the province.

The shipment was made up of children's and women's clothing and men's socks—420 pairs. Total of 200 complete layettes were sent, and all types of children's clothes for both boys and girls, covering one-year to 14-year-old sizes.

The corners of the cases were filled with washcloths and toys and mending kits which were filled by Junior Red Cross workers in the schools.

Packing of the 41 cases was done in the provincial warehouse in Vancouver, which acts as a clearing house for materials going out to branches and ready-made articles coming in from branches and work units throughout B.C.

Two teams already clinched first flight roll-off spots for next spring, but Industrial Electric still have a fight on their hands to grab the last slot in next Monday's play—the final for the first half of the schedule.

Currently enjoying a three-point lead in the standings, Industrial

Electric will have to take two points to assure a playoff spot. Anything less could mean either a tie for the third berth or one of the three teams presently tied for fourth taking over.

Industrial Electric made a determined bid to clinch the last roll-off berth Monday in chalking up three of its high efforts. However they could manage only three points against Creuzot Construction, one of the three squads still in the running and all tied in fourth position.

Allan Anderson's 713 topped the triples while the 116 teams single and 2937 three were untouchable.

Safeway's L. Guidi rolled the best single of 339.

Entertaining over the week-end, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. N. E. DeHart held an after eleven party at the Beach Avenue home of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stevenson and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Boake entertained last Sunday afternoon between 4 and 6 o'clock at the Leon Avenue home of the latter.

Spending a short time in this city is Mrs. A. E. Bennett, of Oliver, a guest at the Willow Inn.

AUTHENTIC MEDIEVAL COSTUMES designed by Harold Patton (kneeling) will be featured in Frank Lambrett-Smith's "An Evening with Shakespeare" presented at the Empress Theatre this Saturday evening under the auspices of the Kelowna Kiwanis Club. Curtain time will be 9 o'clock.

Actors who will be seen in the various Shakespearean roles include (from left) Jack Droy, wearing a Richard III costume; Mr. Patton; Philip Blodreau, dressed as Othello; and Mr. Lambrett-Smith, seen here in his MacBeth costume. Scenes from Hamlet will highlight the evening's program which will also include other roles.

"Evening With Shakespeare"
Will Be Presented Saturday

All the beauty and dignity of the legitimate stage will be featured here this Saturday evening, when the Kelowna Kiwanis Club presents "An Evening with Shakespeare," starring Frank Lambrett-Smith, noted Vancouver producer-director-actor, and his troupe of 12 young players at the Empress Theatre. Curtain time is scheduled for 9 o'clock and doors will open at 8:30 p.m.

Highlighting the evening's program will be a number of scenes from "Hamlet," starring Mr. Lambrett-Smith. He will appear in the "Nunnery Scene" with "Ophelia" and again in the "Queen's Chamber Room Scene" with his mother, "Queen Gertrude," both somber and tragedy-weighted. In direct contrast, Mr. Lambrett-Smith will appear in the subtly, ironical "Gloucester and the Duke of Buckingham" plot to gain the throne in "Richard III" and in "Clarence's Dream" from the same play.

Mrs. David Anderson of Kelowna, will assume the role of Hamlet's mother, the "Queen Gertrude of Denmark," as she is replacing Miss Frances McCulloch of Vancouver, who was unable to make the trip.

In keeping with the magnificent costuming throughout the various scenes presented, Mrs. Anderson will wear scarlet gabardine with gold cord edging, the wide sweeping train. Her papier-mache coronet and snood are richly encrusted with pearls and silver gunmetal beads. Wolf fur is worn at the throat and jewels are replicas of ornaments worn at that period.

Convincing Sincerity
Other numbers on the program will be the hilariously amusing "Tricking of Malvolio" from "Twelfth Night" and scenes from "Othello" including the death of Desdemona and the unmasking of Iago's treachery.

When Mr. Lambrett-Smith first produced "Hamlet" in Vancouver in 1945, he was widely acclaimed by critics in that city for his "convincing sincerity in producing, directing and taking the leading role in this greatest of all dramas." Other critics stated, "Mr. Lambrett-Smith, as Hamlet, has all the important qualifications for the role. His stage presence and his voice are exactly right. He moves from brooding self-possession to flaming hate at the drop of a dagger. His 'Hamlet' has the fine requisite of dignity, he rivets the attention of eye and ear."

Since that time Mr. Lambrett-Smith has reproduced Hamlet a number of times, each presentation proving equally as well received as the first. On presenting Hamlet at the Seventh Annual Ashland (Oregon) Shakespearean Festival at the only Elizabethan Theatre on the North American continent, critics acclaimed his portrayal as one of the best, stating that "it was a joy to have 'Hamlet' given in the old tradition."

Many Roles
Besides his Shakespearean productions, Mr. Lambrett-Smith has produced plays by George Bernard Shaw and also presented his own adaptation of Charles Dickens' "David Copperfield," playing the roles of "Mr. Murdstone," "Uriah Heep" and "Mr. Micawber." He also played the role of "the Doctor" in "Arsenic and Old Lace."

Featuring magnificent costuming designed by Harold Patton of Vancouver, Saturday evening's production promises to be one of the most brilliant held in this city.

CHURCH GUILDS HOLD ANNUAL
YULE BAZAAR

EAST KELOWNA—The annual Christmas bazaar of The Okanagan Mission Parish was held in the Rutland Community Hall last Saturday when members of St. Mary's Guild with St. Andrew's Okanagan Mission, journeyed to Rutland to join St. Adrian's Guild members for a busy day.

The fancywork stall had a lovely selection of needlework of every description with knitted garments for babies and older children.

The men's stall and superflutable had useful and seasonal gifts to offer, all of which did good business. The home cooking stall was very attractive, with an abundance of appetizing cakes, cookies, pies, bread, buns, home-made candy jams, jellies, pickles, and Christmas puddings.

A dainty afternoon tea was served by members of St. Mary's Guild and tea cups were read for a small charge. There was a good crowd of buyers and the event was considered a huge success. Proceeds will go toward guild funds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Krenn, formerly of 1150 Atchier Street, have moved to Okanagan Falls where they have taken over the Okanagan Falls Hotel Cafe.

WHIST DRIVE
BLACK MOUNTAIN—A whist drive was held here last Friday at the school. First prize for men was awarded to Mr. Silvernagel with Mr. Beryl drawing the booby award. Mrs. Berris won the lady's first prize while Mrs. McPhee received the lady's booby.

Proceeds will go to the Christmas tree party to be held for school children.

Mr. Paul Schmidt, of 833 Wilson Avenue, is holidaying in Okanagan Falls visiting friends and relatives. Exceptionally good weather has made his trip most enjoyable. At present he is staying with a niece, Mrs. Joe J. Holliman, Jr., at her home 18 miles south of Kamloops.

What's New at Heather's?

By MIL CRITTENDEN

HURRY, HURRY, HURRY down to Heather's! Cause the big sale still continues—and something new has been added! Whole racks of high-style dresses have been grouped for quick clearance. Last week these fashions were tagged at much higher prices. Tomorrow you can come in and walk off with your choice for only 65¢! Yes, believe it or not, 65¢! That's because the store will be renovated in January—pushing the big January sale ahead a whole month! Be here at nine sharp—as the best buys will go to early shoppers Friday.

This season there's fanfare for the "Far East" look—a trend towards Oriental designs... Mandarin collars and Eastern sandals... lounging costumes in a harem mood. That's why it's so exciting to find these authentic Chinese pyjamas at Heather's. Not copies or adaptations—these are the real McCoy, hand-made in Hong Kong from finest pure silk and hand-embroidered in brilliant Chinese motifs.

There's all the color and romance of China in their exotic dragon designs! They conjure up visions of incense burning before an idol... of temple bells ringing in the market place. What a fabulous "at home" costume to own—or what a treasured gift to give this Christmas. In black, red or turquoise with white. 22.50.

Clever footnotes for your Christmas gift list! Hand-embroidered Chinese slippers to keep her feet as gay as her heart! They come in black, Chinese red, plum or green with vivid designs in contrasting colors. Team them with the pyjamas above—and see how they complete the fashion picture right down to the ground! A sure-fire hit as a Christmas gift—for every woman from glamor girl to grandma loves a pair of pretty slippers. The price—surprise, surprise!—only 2.95 and 3.50.

P.S.—Do see the exquisite Chinese evening bags in rich brocade tapestry—with filigree frames in gold-colored metal. 11.95. Also costume jewelry sets with the pyjamas—another brilliant gift idea!

Black Mountain—here we come! Whistling down the ski slopes in slick and rugged duds from Heather's. See this crack line-up of jackets, pants and colorful accessories. They're cut to the bone, functional—indispensable in style for this season and many more to come. So make tracks to Heather's—and then, let's hit for the ski trails!

Rating special attention are these Instructor's downhill ski pants in all wool gabardine—precision tailored and treated to resist dampness. In navy or beige; zipper pockets; choice of medium or long lengths. 19.95. Ask to see the cable sweaters, too, in canary yellow, grey, beige or white. 7.95. Also the ski enthusiast's favorite—the Fairisle sweater, at 6.95.

Not to be sneezed at! Lovely, lace handkerchiefs—pretty as the first snowflake! They're wisps of artful femininity in white, frosted with lace or brightened with gay embroidery. These are Chinese imports—done on fine Chinese linen with hand rolled edges and exquisite hand embroidery. Choose now from Heather's bountiful pre-Christmas selection. You'll want some for your own adornment and some for fairy-tale Christmas gifts. Each 75¢ to 1.50. —Adv.

QUIET WEDDING IS PERFORMED AT LOCAL HOME

The Poplar Point home of Mr. and Mrs. A. McKim was the scene of a quiet wedding, Wednesday afternoon, November 30, when their second daughter, Leah Grace, became the bride of Mr. Raymond Monesmith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Monesmith, of Baines Lake. Rev. D. M. Perley officiated.

The bride was attired in a blue suit with brown accessories and had as her bridesmaid her sister, Miss Thelma McKim, who wore a pale blue suit complemented by wine accessories.

The groom was supported by Mr. Peter Newton. Following the reception which was attended by a few close family friends, the newlyweds left for a trip to points in the state of Washington. They will reside in Penitentiary.

REV. R. A. McLAREN WILL ADDRESS P.T.A. MEMBERS

Rev. R. A. McLaren, well-known throughout the province for his work in youth activities, will be guest speaker at the December meeting of the Kelowna Parent-Teacher Association to be held next Monday evening, December 12, in the Junior High School auditorium.

Rev. McLaren is the principal of the Christian Leadership Training School at Naramata, founding it in 1947. Establishment of the school was the culmination of a lifetime work in guiding youth activities.

Starting his career while still a theology student in Alberta, Rev. McLaren became first known through the successes of the boys' baseball team he had organized. Later he moved to Vancouver where he found youth leaders so badly needed, he determined then and there to begin a training school. His obvious sincerity and enthusiasm gained him much sympathy and support from many laymen and he finally established the youth training school at Naramata two years ago.

Following his address, a short Christmas concert put on by members of a grade VI class will highlight the evening's program. The meeting will convene at 8 o'clock. Non-members of the P.T.A. are welcome. Refreshments and a social hour will follow the planned entertainment.

Charming Wedding Performed At Local Catholic Church

One of the more charming early winter weddings was that solemnized in the church of Immaculate Conception on Saturday, November 26, when Frances, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kirschner, became the bride of Maurice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leverrier, all of Kelowna. Very Rev. Father J. McKenzie officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of white satin, the net yoke enhanced by a wide V of satin ruching, all providing a charming setting for the groom's gift of a gold pendant. A row of tiny buttons marching down the back of the fitted bodice focused attention on the jaunty bustle which flowed into a full length train. Her veil of bridal illusion was fastened by a delicate crown, and she carried a bouquet of red carnations.

Gowned alike in the pastel shades of turquoise and deep pink, sisters of the two principals attended, while Miss Kay Kirschner chose turquoise taffeta for her gown, styled after that of the bride, with a bouquet of yellow mums for contrast, while Miss Yvonne Leverrier preferred deep pink taffeta offset by the soft mauve of the mums in her bouquet. Both wore matching chapel veils.

Little Diane Rambold, niece of the bride, proved a charming little train carrier in her soft pink gown and white chapel veil.

Andrew Rambold and Reni Belanger supported the groom. Mothers of the principals, Mrs. Kirschner and Mrs. Leverrier, both chose black afternoon dresses for the occasion highlighted by white carnation corsages.

The bride's table was centred by a beautiful wedding cake and was the centre of attention at the reception held at the home of the brides.

'Round the Town

By JOAN GRIMMETT

Spotlighting next week's entertainment is the variety minstrel show to be presented by the United Church Junior Young People's Association next Monday and Tuesday evenings in the United Church hall. Curtain time is 8 o'clock.

Featured stars of the presentation are two local baritones, John Supars and Ernie Burnett, and Miss Velva Maxson, Miss Merle Miller will be accompanist throughout the evening. Preceding the novelty minstrel show performed in "blackface" is a short play entitled "A Ghostly Evening." Cast of the play include Dorcen Underhill, Jo Jantz, Beverly Lewis, Vivian Vanidour, Roger Smeeth, Billy Fisher, Ken Tutt, and Alwilda Minette. Miss B. Beaumont will direct the play assisted by Joan Reid.

Producer-director of the presentation is Bill Anderson. Christmas carols will be sung between plays.

MUSICAL COMEDY BEING PRESENTED CHRISTMAS WEEK

Spotlighting musical entertainment the week before Christmas is the United Church choir presentation of the operetta "When the Moon Rises," at the Empress Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 20 and 21. Curtain time is 8 o'clock.

"When the Moon Rises" is a musical comedy in two acts. The story takes place in the grounds of a fashionable resort hotel and is interspersed with bright dialogue and brighter songs by soloists and chorus. The choir of First United Church, under the direction of Dr. Ivan Beadle, is putting on this project to raise funds for new gowns and music.

Young members of the choir will take prominent parts along with well experienced performers. The operetta contains many charming songs with gypsy life and color. The main characters in the plot are both of gypsy birth and include John Tarko, who renounced his origin in the pursuit of a singing career, and his former sweetheart, Carla, a gypsy girl. Tarko comes into conflict with the tribe's "king" Paule. Two other young couples are involved in the story which also includes the "kidnapping" of a young society belle.

Miss Jean Love, of 1547 Ellis Street, was the lucky winner of the "Dress of the Month" draw held at the Paramount Theatre last Monday evening. Miss Love is the December winner.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. MacLean and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gaddes returned last Sunday from a short trip to Spokane.

Parents following the ceremony. A dinner was held for the immediate family at noon, while another dinner was held that evening for friends and relatives. Many lovely gifts were showered on the happy couple.

Miss Betty Dalley entertained at a pre-Christmas party at her Glenn Avenue home last Saturday evening when eighteen telephone operators and their escorts were guests of honor. Bingo, dancing and other amusements were chosen for the evening's entertainment climaxing with the serving of delicious refreshments.

Music for dancing was supplied by Brian Herron. Mrs. Gladys Blakeborough and Bob Hendricks, the latter entertaining with a number of accordion selections.

Mrs. J. Hardy, formerly of 750 Wilson Avenue, has taken up residence in Benavon opposite the school.

WILL BUILD SUB STATION IN SOUTH END

New Unit will Overcome Power Distribution Problem in Kelowna

West Kootenay Power and Light Company will construct a new sub-station in the south end of Kelowna and the city electrical department will now be able to modernize and bring up to standard the whole electrical distribution within the city limits. It was revealed at Monday night's council meeting.

Details of the recent conference between West Kootenay power heads, B.C. Power Commission officials, and city representatives, were submitted by Alderman R. Prosser.

The additional sub-station, Mr. Prosser said, should be in operation by September, 1950, barring any difficulties which might arise in procuring equipment.

As the transformers for the new sub are already on order in Eastern Canada, it is reasonable to assume it will be ready before the peak load period arrives next fall, he declared.

E. W. I. Jardine, chief engineer of the P.U.C. along with his assistant engineer, D. McMyn and R. Dean, West Kootenay officials; C. H. Neale, electrical engineer; G. W. Meckling, city engineer, and several members of the City Council attended the conference.

Mr. Prosser said a satisfactory agreement had been reached and steps will be taken to ensure adequate distribution to meet the city's present and future requirements.

Capacity Load
"The West Kootenay officials agreed that the load had reached the capacity of the existing sub-station, a condition which was predicted very accurately some months ago by Mr. Neale," Alderman Prosser declared.

Mayor W. B. Hughes-Games indicated the city would negotiate a new contract with West Kootenay in order to pass the saving on to consumers. His Worship said the city is receiving power under a contract signed 15 years ago.

At this point, Alderman J. Ladd raised the question of the B.C. Power Commission taking over the power distribution. He thought the matter should be investigated before the city "went out on a limb" in revamping its present electrical plant.

However, Mr. Neale did not think the additional expense would necessitate placing a bylaw before the ratepayers.

BIKE RIDERS PAY FINES
Seven cyclists were charged this week with riding at night without lights.

Pleading guilty by waiver and paying fines of $2.50 were: David Pawson, Carmen Rantucci, Percy Murrell, F. J. Davidson, Martin Willison, Janet Harvey and Rita Bridges.

Parking in a prohibited area in the vicinity of the arena cost Edward G. Davies $2.50 in city police court December 5.
